Good afternoon Erica,

I am a UF Master's Student studying Fisheries and Aquatic Sciences with a project focused on oyster populations and water quality in the Lake Worth Lagoon, Palm Beach County. Attached is a short proposal of my project's direction.

I was reading through some reports and was hoping to use some raw data collected as part of my project, specifically date, site location, live count, dead count, and YSI readings. Is it possible to get this data back to 2005?

Thank you,
Sabrina Fischer
